Don Boyes

will speak on

“Persecution and the Productive Purposes of the Lord”

This presentation will look at the Biblical and human reasons for persecution, along with its causes and effects in human experience, with visual and verbal focus on the Persecuted Church in different areas of our present day world. Some very up to date information will be shared.

Don Boyes has served with Wycliffe Bible Translators, working in Bolivia with his wife, Ruth, from 1962 to 1976. After Don trained for the Baptist pastorate, they were led to the ministry of Open Doors with Brother Andrew in 1989. This work has involved many visits to the persecuted church.

A bookstall will be available.

All are welcome to attend. Meetings conclude with tea and coffee. We aim to finish by 9.00pm.

£3 per attendance

£15 annually
